I recommend that any reader of Apologetics for the Glory of God get a copy of Frame's masterpiece The Doctrine of the Knowledge of God (A Theology of Lordship) as frequent reference is made to it and you will find ideas hinted at fully expounded in that larger volume. All of Frame's thinking is influenced by his tri-perspectival way of looking at things (which DKG goes into much detail), where he realizes the helpfulness of considering truth from different angles.
