Lamentation. Giotto's Lamentation of the Death of Christ (a popular narrative for 14 th century religious paintings) is the most famous of his frescoes for the Arena Chapel in Padua. Considered a bone-fide masterpiece of proto-renaissance painting, Giotto's frescoes revealed a ground-breaking style of naturalism, overturning the flat, two-dimensional, conventions of medieval painting.

Harmony is a principle of art which refers to how well all the visual elements work together. Elements which are in harmony should have some kind of logical progression or relationship. It should just look like it works. If there is an element which is not in harmony with the rest of the artwork, it should stick-out and be jarring to look at; kind of like an off note in a song.
